PRAYER BURDEN

As we continue with our journey to Kenya@70, let us consider the glorious deliverance of the children of Israel from slavery in Egypt in the season of Passover. We are celebrating 'Passover' after the successful and powerful Africa House of Prayer (AHOP) held at Entebbe, Uganda. During the conference, it was revealed that lies are part of the resources used by Satan to accomplish his mission to steal, and to kill, and to destroy [John 10:10]. But Jesus Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life [John 14:6] was manifested to destroy the works of the devil [1 John 3:8]. It is important to note that Passover marked the birth of the promised God's Jewish nation. In the same manner, this season of Passover can mark a key milestone of the journey to Kenya's 'septenary' blessings.

God passed through the land of Egypt on the night of Passover, struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt and against all the gods of Egypt, He executed judgment [Exodus 12:12]. In a similar way, let us invite the Lord to judge those who use idolatry and lies to gain wealth and other advantages through corrupt means.

When He saw the blood on the doorposts and on the lintel of the houses belonging to Israelites, God passed over [Passover] and the plague did not destroy the children of Israel [Exodus 12:13]. Christ is our Passover and He will grant Kenya 'Passover' from political, economic and social plagues as we appropriate the power of His blood through our prayers.
