Kenya House of Prayer

Who is Kenya House of Prayer?

The Kenya House of Prayer (KHP) is a Christian organization duly registered in Kenya as an Inter-denominational prayer movement. It is affiliated to continental network of Intercessors for Africa (IFA) which has its head office in Kenya. The term "House of Prayer" is derived from the Bible, that "God's house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations" – Isaiah 56:7. The National coordinating office is in Highview Estate Phase 1 (Opposite KEMRI), Nairobi, Kenya

Vision

A transformed Kenya fulfilling her prophetic destiny

Mission

Standing in the gap on behalf of the land, through discipleship and strategic prayer

Mandate

Overall Goal

To mobilize, pray and equip a prophetic army that effectively prays for the nation, influences leaders to apply biblical principles and reaching out to the community with the Gospel of the Kingdom.

Objectives

1. Raise a prayer army in Kenya and provide a platform for effective intercessory networks across the land
2. Raise spiritually mature and skilled resource stewards and servant leaders at all levels of public life
3. Disciple children and youth to take responsibility for Kenya's destiny
4. Reach to the needy through prayer and material support
5. Network with praying believers to disciple the nation
6. Provide facilities to promote prayers in the nation

7. Pray for and support the Nation of Israel

8. To prayer for Africa and the nations to fulfill their God given mandate.

Key Programmes of the Kenya House of Prayer

i. Strategic Praying

This is realised through organized fellowships of praying believers from different denominations that gather in specific locations at the village, town, or city in the country to pray for issues affecting their neighbourhoods, County and the nation. The meetings encourage unity and networking among the believers and strengthening the body of Christ as an effective "watchman" company.

ii. Prayer school

Kenya House of Prayer conducts a nationwide Leadership Training Programme (LTP) in intercession and spiritual warfare to prepare and equip the Church for Godly transformation of the nation. The trainees are encouraged to actively participate in prayer during and after the training. The goal of this training is to mobilize and develop leaders for effective intercession and to provide a platform for intercessory networks that are able to execute prayer assignments. LTP is held every Sunday for five months from January to May and July to December at decentralised locations in the Country.

iii. Sundoulus African Leadership Training (SALT) Institute

The SALT Institute, Kenya Chapter, is an arm of the Intercessors For Africa with the aim of identifying, training, raising and equipping servant leaders who will apply biblical principles in governance at all levels of society through prayer and action. It is currently active in Nairobi, Eldoret and Kisumu, and expected to cover most Counties in the days ahead.

iv. Africa Kingdom Business Forum (AKBF)

This is an initiative for people in the marketplace aimed at raising prudent Kingdom resource stewards by providing an interactive, networking and training forum for business people who will make resources available for God's purposes. The forum is committed to both praying and taking all positive actions to see the fulfilment of God's promises following Kingdom principles.

v. Children Prayer Network (CPN)

This programme is designed to train and develop children with the purpose of strengthening their spiritual capacity, enable them realize their full potential and prophetic destiny, and enable them participate in interceding for their nation, Kenya.
